

We have XM Radio because of the wide variety of music/programming that is offered. Our town has minimal choices for radio stations. Do not take away satellite radio just because the National Association of Broadcasters don't want competition. That's what has made our country great, choices in the free market! The best and most inovative succeed, the others fail. The ones that fail is because they don't provide a service people want. Plain and simple.